In Recognition of Wesley Nohara's DEDICATION AND SERVICE

We would like to thank Wesley Nohara for his volunteer service as our Board Chairman for twelve years. Throughout his tenure, Wes has been an invaluable leader who offered thoughtful insight and an unwavering commitment towards our mission. His contributions has helped shape the long-term success of the credit union while leaving a lasting impact on both our team and the community we serve. We celebrate his legacy and thank him for the years of guidance and leadership. Wes will continue to serve as a Board of Director.

We would also like to congratulate Douglas Schenk as our new Chairman of the Board who held the secretary position. We are excited on what this next chapter holds for the credit union under his guidance.

Employee Spotlight: Jethro Casinas

We are proud to congratulate Jethro on earning third place in the national Payments Innovation Alliance Spotlight Video Challenge, hosted by the National Automated Clearing House Association (NACHA). His submission focused on educating consumers on financial scams. In addition, Jethro was one of the four selected for the Junior Executive Development Initiative (JEDI) Program through the Hawaii Credit Union League displaying his leadership potential and dedication towards professional growth.
